

The Evangelical Free Church of Australia (EFCA) is a Chinese Christian congregation in Sydney with over 500 active members in Cantonese, Mandarin and English-speaking ministries. The EFCA seeks to proclaim Christ in an ethnic and multilingual environment in Sydney and beyond and is calling for applications to the following positions:

Senior Pastor

We are prayerfully seeking a Senior Pastor capable of providing God-centred leadership that will enable the church to fulfil its vision. Our existing pastoral team desires to work with a Senior Pastor who is able to disciple, shepherd and lead the pastoral team and deacons in unity with vision and servant leadership.

Key responsibilities:

- Oversee all ministries and work in close cooperation with the Board of Deacons.
- Disciple, shepherd and lead the pastoral team and deacons in unity
- Lead the church in spiritual growth and evangelism
- Perform pastoral duties including preaching, teaching and training

Essential attributes and qualifications:

- Able to disciple, shepherd and lead the pastoral team and deacons in unity with vision and servant leadership
- A seasoned expositor of God's word and able to accurately and persuasively convey Scriptural truth
- Passionate about, and gifted in, building bridges to proclaim Christ to a diverse, multicultural local community which needs to know our Lord, Jesus Christ
- Able to communicate effectively in Cantonese and English, and at least working knowledge in Mandarin
- Small group experience highly desirable
- Extensive, preferably ten years or more, pastoral experience in church or Christian organisation setting
- Master in Divinity or equivalent
